Justice Now

President Bush called Saddam Hussein a liar.

President Bush claimed the Iraqi people were being misled about weapons of mass destruction.

President Bush pointed his finger at other countries,

Declared them cowardly for not making war fast enough.

President Bush ordered our young people to attack and destroy another people.

Our honest and courageous daughters and sons were sent to battle that had no integrity.

The mass media of the United States cheered him in this.

Now it makes excuses for him. We have NO free press.

This outrage shames us all to the bone.

The President must take responsibility for this humiliation.

Our dignity demands no less.
